Literacy Network™

Improving Lives Through Literacy

Literacy Network teaches reading, writing, communication, and computer skills to Dane County adults so they can achieve financial security, well-being, and deeper engagement with their families and the community.

Literacy Network is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization of professional teachers, tutors, volunteers and donors working together to improve adult literacy in Dane County.

All programs are free of charge.

Founded in 1974, Literacy Network has been a United Way Agency since 1979. Literacy Network is also a member of Wisconsin Literacy.
